Summer Teen Volunteer Opportunities

Teen Volunteers Needed!

Are You Interested?

We are looking for responsible teenagers (ages 13-18) to become part of the Grapevine Public Library summer teen volunteer program.

Requirements are simple. You just need willingness to help and be able to commit to a minimum of four hours (2 shifts) of service a week, and be available for at least six weeks during the eight week summer reading club.

Join the 2015 Team of Teen Volunteers!

The 2014 Summer Teen Volunteers contributed 2269 Service Hours.

What to Expect

As a teen volunteer you may earn community service credit applicable to National Honor Society requirements, Scouting Merit Badges, qualifications for college admissions, scholarships, and other similar programs. To qualify for community service credits you will need to donate a minimum of twenty-four hours service during the summer.

Teen volunteer duties may include:

- 1) Electronically registering Reading Club participants.
- 2) Handing out Reading Club prizes.
- 3) Program room set up.
- 4) Participating in Children's programs.
- 5) Shelving returned material.

On the job training will be provided by the library staff.
